Lunch Groups with the Restorative Team

Starting Monday October 3rd, the Restorative team will be hosting lunch groups in room 421. This is open to all students.

-Mondays will focus on mindfulness. We will be working on breathing exercises, self-awareness, and other calming activities with a focus on exercises they can use on their own throughout the day.

-Tuesdays will focus on community building. For the first several weeks we will mostly be doing "get to know you" exercises to help students build new connections with one another.

-Wednesdays will focus on skill building with focus on a different skill each month. We will start off by focusing on Communication for the month of October.

-Fridays will be open for board games. We have a large selection of them here in our classroom.

Freshman Chromebooks

If you have a middle school Chromebook still at home checked out, please return them to the library ASAP. Chromebooks stay on your record till you graduate, become a fine, and you will have to pay that fine before you can graduate. Chromebooks can be returned to the front office or in the library. Library hours are 7-2:30pm, and main office is 7-3:00pm.

Financial Aid Night

Come to our Financial Aid Night! October 20th @ 6PM, for seniors & their parents/guardians. There will be an English speaking and Spanish speaking Version available. Learn about financial aid and how it works! More info >>

Booster Club News

Booster Club is looking for volunteers to assist with Senior Flowers for the 2022-23 school year. This is the last year that our chairperson is leading this. It would be great to have an assistant willing to take over next year so this tradition can continue. Email rrshawks@gmail.com if you might be interested in finding out more. Or come to the next Booster Club meeting on Tuesday, Oct 11 @ 6pm in the school office main conference room. This position is an at home job with specific deadlines. There are some tricks and tips to pass on. We would love to share them.

Homecoming Game & Dance

Mark your calendars! The Homecoming Football game against North Thurston is Friday, October 21 and the Homecoming Dance is Saturday, October 22!
