

NTPS AT A GLANCE

- High-quality teaching is essential to student achievement
- Compassionate attitudes and actions create a culture of service
- Student voice increases engagement and belonging in our learning community
- Investing in our staff is critical to student success
- Healthy relationships are built on collaboration, respect for diversity, accountability, and trust
- Family and community partnerships are essential to meet the needs of our students

24
Schools

14,500+
Students

1070
Classroom teachers

832
Teachers with master's degree or higher

14 years
Average teacher experience

1 to 1
Student-computer ratio
(1st-12th grade)

1 to 4
(Kindergarten)

DID YOU KNOW?

- Our student population is the most ethnically diverse in the South Sound region. Our English Language Learners program serves over 975 students with speakers of 52 languages.
- NTPS buses safely transport 13,700 students about 4,778 miles each day. Our drivers and mechanics have an exceptional safety record with OSPI and the Washington State Patrol.
- NTPS is Thurston County's largest food-service operation, serving approximately 7,000 lunches and 2,500 breakfasts/day.
- On-time graduation rates are higher than the state average, and that average has been maintained for more than five years!
- More than 6,000 family, student, and community volunteers give countless hours of their time in support of student achievement and school activities.

POINTS OF PRIDE

- NTPS School Board named WSSDA School Board of the Year 2023; Board of Distinction 2022, 2023, 2024
- 120+ National Board Certified Teachers
- NTPS teacher Jerad Koepp (Wukchumni) named Washington State Teacher of the Year
- More than 100 dual high school/college credit options through CTE, College in the High School, and Advanced Placement courses

