COUNSELOR or INTERVENTION SPECIALIST
STANDARD POSITION DESCRIPTION

Classification: Certificated
Location: Assigned School(s)

Reports to: Principal
FLSA Status: Exempt

Bargaining Unit: NTEA

This is a standard position description to be used for certificated teaching positions with similar duties, responsibilities, classification and compensation. Counselor/intervention specialists assigned to this position description may or may not be assigned all of the duties identified herein.

This job description does not constitute an employment agreement between the employer and employee and is subject to change by the employer as the needs of the employer and requirements of the job change.

Part I: Position Summary:

The school counselor or intervention specialist works with the Principal in carrying out the school’s guidance and counseling program. As a professional educator with a mental health perspective, the counselor or intervention specialist understands and responds to the challenges presented by today’s diverse student population. The counselor or intervention specialist provides proactive leadership to engage all stakeholders in the delivery of programs and services to support the students’ academic achievement, career preparation, personal and social development. The school counselor or intervention specialist may be assigned at the elementary, middle or high school level.

The District represents a diverse community with a population of approximately 40% students with diverse backgrounds. We seek an individual who has successful experience in working with culturally diverse families and communities. The selected candidate must demonstrate a commitment to strengthening community engagement and communication with the District’s diverse populations.

Part II: Supervision and Controls over the Work:

The employee works with a high level of independence and professional discretion under the general supervision of a designated school administrator. The employee’s work is governed, controlled, and evaluated by acceptable professional practice, school and district policies and regulations, provisions of Washington Administrative Code and Revised Code of Washington, direction of the supervisor, and performance standards and expectations as set forth in the collective bargaining agreement.
Part III: Major Duties and Responsibilities (depending on specific assignment-duties and responsibilities listed may include, but are not limited to the following):

1. Implements the district’s counseling and intervention program and serves as a resource for building staff, administrators, and parents in working with students, creating a positive school climate, and helping students develop a positive self-concept. Consults with district administration and building staff with respect to development of the curriculum to meet the identified needs of the students. Participates or leads development of positive behavior support systems and development of intervention strategies.

2. At the elementary level, provides for early identification and intervention of students’ academic and personal/social needs to help remove barriers to learning, promote academic achievement, and create a foundation for future success. Liaison with outside agencies for child safety and welfare. Attends IEP meetings if needed.

3. At the middle school level, provides a comprehensive developmental school counseling program to create a supportive climate and atmosphere whereby young adolescents can cope with the passage from childhood to adolescence and achieve academic success. The middle school counselor helps students explore a variety of interests; connect their learning in the classroom to its practical application in life and work; adjust to high levels of activity coupled with frequent fatigue due to rapid growth; search for their own unique identity as they begin turning more frequently to peers for ideas and affirmation.

4. At the high school level, assists students in the final transition into adulthood and the world of work as the students are beginning to separate from parents and explore and define their independence. Helps students evaluate their strengths, skills and abilities, explore career choices, and develop decision making skills. Provides programs and support to students as they face increased pressures regarding high risk behaviors. High school counselor/intervention specialists enhance the learning process and promote academic achievement by helping students acquire positive social skills and values, set appropriate career goals and realize full academic potential to become productive, contributing members of the world community.

5. Provides school orientation to new students and plans for and assists students in grade level transition. Develops and manages both school and individual student schedules. Determines student placement and, at the secondary level, guides students in course selection. Coordinates the process for identification of students with educational handicaps and report these to the appropriate district personnel. Provides academic, vocational, and personal counseling to students. Assists students at the secondary level in post-secondary planning and application and portfolio processes.

6. Works directly with students to help them learn how to manage themselves, improve study and test-taking skills, organize information, make decisions, and deal with change. Guides and assists students in peer relationships and in developing effective coping skills necessary to refuse participation in substance abuse, physical violence, or other at-risk behaviors. Provides individual and small-group counseling to support peer mediation and crisis intervention.
7. Works as part of a cross-district counseling team to ensure implementation of American School Counseling Association standards in order to implement a comprehensive counseling and guidance plan.

8. Coordinates the effort necessary for the referral of families to special in-district and out of district services. Assists with staff training, including training in the identification of high-risk youth and effective interaction with those students in the school setting. Provides referrals for students and their families related to use, misuse and abuse of drugs, alcohol and tobacco.

9. Makes class and community presentations in such areas as study skills, goal setting, career awareness and the world of work, substance abuse education, parenting, school-to-work, and multicultural/diversity awareness.

10. Coordinates or assist in the school’s standardized testing program and interprets test results to teachers, students, and parents.

11. Initiates and maintains adequate student and office records and school data basis for the coordination of a student’s total program.

12. Required to follow Board policies and stay abreast of updates and changes.

13. Performs other duties as assigned.

Part IV: Minimum Qualifications:

1. Candidate must have successful experience in working with culturally diverse families and communities, or have otherwise demonstrated a commitment to strengthening engagement of a diverse community and skill in communicating with a diverse population.

2. Successful completion of a master’s degree in school counseling and required state certification as an educational staff associate in counseling.

3. Demonstrated ability to apply and use effectively a variety of personal and family counseling models.

4. Skills and ability to serve as an educational leader including the ability to plan, organize, and facilitate staff meetings, planning processes, and cultural community projects and events.

5. Strong assessment, analytical and diagnostic skills

Part V: Desired Qualifications:

1. Bilingual skills
2. Successful experience at the level of assignment.
Part VI: Physical and Environmental Requirements of the Position:

The physical demands and work environment described here are representative of those that must be met by an employee to successfully perform the essential functions of this job. Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions.

While performing the duties of this job, the employee is frequently required to sit, move about, hear and speak.

The employee must routinely lift and carry materials weighing up to 50 pounds, and may be required to restrain students weighing more than 100 pounds most typically when required to intervene in student safety issues.

Specific vision abilities required by this job include close vision, distance vision, color vision, peripheral vision, depth perception, and the ability to adjust focus.

While performing the duties of this job, the employee occasionally works in outside weather conditions. The employee is occasionally exposed to wet and/or humid conditions, fumes or airborne particles, toxic or caustic chemicals. It may be expected that the individual could be exposed to blood or other potentially infectious materials during the course of their duties. The noise level in the work environment is usually moderate but can be loud on occasion.

The employee may be exposed to infectious disease as carried by students, exposed to student noise and learning resource noise levels, may sit or stand for longer than 2 hours at a time, may lift objects repeatedly, and may undertake repeated motions.

The employee may be required to travel in school owned or leased vehicles while supervising and assisting students.
