➤ NTHS News:

- March 2: March is Women and History Month so in honor of this, today we are honoring Oprah Winfrey, an American television actress and entrepreneur whose syndicated daily talk show was among the most popular of the genre. She became one of the richest and most influential women in the United States.
- The RamPage is sponsoring a Super Smash Bros tournament! Recognition Awards for the top competitors include a wireless Gamecube pro controller for the Nintendo switch. Space is limited, so sign up during lunch in Mrs. Bork's Room 125.
- 23 North Thurston Marketing students will be heading to State DECA competition this Thursday, where they will be competing against the top marketing students in the state. There are over 2000 students state wide in the competition. Good – luck to North Thurston's Marketing students trying to earn their way to Nationals in Nashville Tennessee. Go Marketing students!!!
- Attention class of 2021 and beyond – do you have a plan to earn your two years of fine art credit? With pre-registration coming up soon, be sure to check what classes are offered by our fine arts department. Our newest addition, From Hip Hop to Street Art, examines the history and evolution of hip hop, rap, graffiti, and street art, and is a great way to earn the art credit you need to graduate.

➤ Career Center News:

- Students interested in a technical college- sign-up in the career center for these two trips:
 - Bates Technical College open house on March 5
 - Centralia College tour on March 12

➤ Visual and Performing Arts News:

- Congratulations to the Winterguard, 1st place winners in the scholastic A division at their second competition of the season on Saturday.
- Huge shout out to the winter play cast, crew and director! "The Children's Hour" was expertly acted, beautifully articulated, and powerful. Bravo, thespian RAMS--you should be very proud of yourselves! Encore!

GO RAMS!
